

Finance For Directors

Understanding Your Role in Financial Governance and Reporting

Every board member understands the importance of company finances. However, not every director is aware of their specific role and responsibilities in regard to financial governance and stewardship. This training is designed to equip directors that have a non-financial background with a deeper understanding of key financial issues, including how to spot red flags, vulnerabilities, and risks in company finances.

Specifically, the workshop will cover the following topics:

Course Objectives

- The director's role and responsibilities in financial governance and reporting
- Key terminology, policies, and procedures governing financial reporting
- How financial statements are developed and what they represent
- Relevant questions to ask regarding company finances and how to understand the answers given
- How to ensure the company is solvent/liquid, profitable, and performing

Prior knowledge of accounting or finance is not required.*

About the Myanmar Institute of Directors

The Myanmar Institute of Directors (MIoD) is an independent organization promoting corporate governance standards and best practices in Myanmar. It aims to advance board professionalism, promote business ethics and transparency, create networks between corporate leaders and stakeholders, and boost investor confidence in Myanmar's capital markets. The institute's activities include providing board and corporate governance training, helping raise awareness on governance topics, and advocating for market reforms. MIoD was formed with support from the International Finance Corporation (IFC), a sister organization of the World Bank and a member of the World Bank Group, and the governments of Australia and the United Kingdom.
